night's city council meeting passes next week, as seems likely, the police force will be increased from thirtyseven members, including the prison matron, to forty, the increased number being a captain of police and two patrolmen. The bill was referred to the committee on police and prison, with directions to report next Tuesday evening. After the ordinance was introduced, Councilman Daveler offered a resolution directing the chief of police patrolmen. The bill was referred to the resolution directing the chief of police to appoint two mounted patrolmen for service in the residence districts from service in the residence districts from June 1 to Nov. 1, for the purpose of suppressing hoodlumism, and the resolution was referred, to be considered in connection with the ordinance increasing the police force.

The proposed ordinance to increase the membership of the police force is the re-enactment of the ordinance under which the department is now constituted, and provides that within tendays after its passage the chief of police shall designate three duty sergeants, three desk sergeants, two patrol drivers, two prison guards, one detective, one matron, one assistant jailer, two officers for duty at the railway depots, one for duty as bicycle policeman, twenty-one patrolmen and one member of the department as captain of police. There is no change proposed in the salaries now paid, except. tain of police. There is no change proposed in the salaries now paid, except, of course, that the captain is to receive a yearly salary of $1.080, or $120 more than the patrolmen are paid.

All Old Men to Remain. An old men to Remain.

A proviso in the bill states that the tenure of office of the present officers and members of the police force shall not be affected by the new ordinance. There are still four vacancies in the police department. Under the assumption that there were six places, Chief Paul let week appointed A.A.A. History
